Jarreau Jackson
Mechanical Engineering
Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing
North America Spring ‘08

The Toyota experience was extremely beneficial. The most that I got out of it was that it helped me narrow my career path. I was able to network with a lot of professional engineers and learn the in’s-and-out’s of Toyota’s processes that have led them to the top of the automotive industry. Though I am a mechanical engineer, this experience taught me civil and electrical engineering skills too. I also further developed my technical, organizational, and people skills through my tasks by:

1. Developing plans for vehicle testing and evaluation projects through research and development of space, electrical, financial, and structural requirements.
2. Conducting presentations, supervised, and managed project requests through CAD floor plans, layouts, drawings, A4 and budget reports for manager and vice president sign offs.
3. Investigating and gaining invaluable insight on the logistics of a major corporation through collaborating with professional engineers of various fields and departments.
4. Partnering with teams of contractors and engineers in research and development to investigate, plan, and implement construction of Capital Budget Projects budgeting over $200,000. I recommend this experience, even if it means interrupting a portion of your school year, to gain invaluable insight to engineering, processes, standards, and ethics.

Eaton Multicultural Scholarship

The Eaton Multicultural Scholarship is an exciting opportunity for diverse, motivated college sophomores, juniors and seniors from select schools whose career aspirations include working for a manufacturing company in any of a variety of capacities. For More Information go to:
