Police Officer Risk Management: Officer Adrian Ojerio. On force for almost 11 years

Parties:
- Trouble for noise Violations (any noise that leaves your property that annoys someone else)
- To avoid ticket, come to door right away and identify yourself, follow police suggestions, quicker response lowers chances for tickets
- Enhanced party noise: $1000, 3 factors of 6 factors needed, common source, live entertainment, charging for alcohol or cups, amplified sound outside, outdoor drinking games, underage drinking

MIP:
• don’t draw attention to yourself (don’t walk down street with open containers, open if factory seal is broken, or sticking out of your pockets),
• if in vehicle should be in trunk or area not open to use, don’t be with people that start fights or yell at others,
• police won’t shop for MIP’s, if you are puking or having trouble walking police will check on you,
• Police won’t write tickets for people who call the police or medics to help an individual that can’t stay awake and is too drunk,
• if you are underage and have alcohol and you lie to the police you will be in trouble,
• always carry an ID with you, it can keep you out of jail,

PBT (Breathalyzer test):
• Not required to take one if under 21, but if police ask it is better to go with it
• Police do not need a PBT to arrest you for drinking.

Drunk Driving:
• Get a cab ($10 dollars vs $5000 for DUI or other offense)

Medical Marijuana:
• Legal for card holders, no one else,

Party Guests:
• Ask belligerent people to leave, call the police if someone will not leave,
• If police ask to end your party, end the party
• Police will generally ask if you want help clearing the party, if there is nothing to hide let them help,
• Lawn is private property, any parking lot that holds 10 or more cars is public property,
• Cops are understanding if you are driving a drunk person home and you, the driver, are sober, you will not get in trouble,

Stolen Property:
• Be religious about locking doors and making sure the doors latch,
• Lock your car, lock your stuff up
• U-Lock the wheel of your moped
• Moped drunk driving, is drunk driving
• Get serial numbers for TV’s, Laptops, Etc.
• ASMSU free legal service all through campus, free attorney,
• Get Renters Insurance
