A MESSAGE FROM THE CO-PRESIDENTS

COME TO OUR DECEMBER HOLIDAY RECEPTION

We hope everyone is keeping warm during this early winter.

The November program, "What Can I Find in the State of Michigan Archives?", was very informative and we're sure everyone who attended learned something new.

We do not have a speaker for December because we have our annual Holiday Reception. It will be Friday, December 6, from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. The party is at a new location, the Presbyterian Church of Okemos, 2258 Bennett Road. Entertainment will be provided by the Edgewood Treblemakers from the Edgewood United Church in East Lansing. The Quilting group's lovely works of art will be on display for purchase and all of the proceeds will go to the MSUCC Endowed Scholarship Fund. This contribution to the Scholarship Fund is tax deductible. Donations will be accepted for Safe Place. See the article below for a link to the Safe Place needs list.

Our next newsletter will be sent in February, and the next program is scheduled for Friday, February 14. The topic will be "A Formula for Student Success," featuring Leonel Ornelas, coordinator of MSU's College Assistance Migrant Program.

Wishing you all a peaceful and joyful holiday season and a Happy New Year!

IT'S TIME FOR THE HOLIDAY RECEPTION!

The MSU Community Club will celebrate the winter holidays with our annual Holiday Reception on Friday, December 6, from 12 to 2:00 PM at the Presbyterian Church of Okemos, 2258 Bennett Road in Okemos. There is ample parking at the church, and the social hall is on the main floor.

The "Treblemakers" from Edgewood United Church will be our musical entertainment. The Edgewood TrebleMakers is an a Capella singing group of seventeen treble voices, made up of (mostly) Edgewood United Church, UCC members. Three of the singers—Mary Anne Larzelere, Peggy Dunn, and Nancy Bieber--are members of the MSUCC Spartan Quilters. Their director is Marcia Beer. It is with great joy that they return to sing for this Holiday Celebration.

The Spartan Quilters interest group will display some of their projects for sale, the poinsettias decorating the tables will be available for purchase, our holiday charity MSU Safe Place will be represented, and a light luncheon will be served. Mark your calendar so you won't miss this wonderful annual event.
