Hello SWEsters,

Welcome back! I hope your semester is off to a good start. Tonight GM is here to talk about individual leadership skills and developing them. It should be a great presentation, so please give the speaker your full attention. I strongly encourage you to listen closely and think of one question to ask at the end.

Jessie Hettinger, is currently working as Lead Body Structures Designing Engineer for some of GM's future Cadillac products. Jessie joined GM in 1997 as a Co-Op student from Kettering University (GMI Engineering & Management Institute). While with GM, she has worked as a Safety Engineering, Validation Engineer, Dimensional Engineer, CAE Analyst, Designing Engineer and Global Engineering Business Manager. Jessie is the chair for the GM Women's Employee Resource Group Outreach and Recruitment Committee. She is also a member of the Virginia Tech University Relations Team.

One last thing, SWE region leadership positions elections are underway. Applications are easy to fill out and are due February 5. I strongly encourage you to run for a position in our region (Region H). It is a great exposure to SWE, to working with a large group across several states and across the country, and is a fantastic leadership role. Please come talk to Christina Barry (Regional Collegiate Representative/MSU Outreach Chair) or to me (Alternate Region Collegiate Senator).

Enjoy!

Welcome back ladies, we hope you had a fantastic Winter Break! Thursday February 2nd is going to be our second trip this semester to the Ronald McDonald House and we need about five volunteers. If you are unable to make it this month, we are going to continue going once a month for the rest of spring semester. We are also trying to plan other fun and exciting volunteer opportunities, so if you have any ideas or questions, please feel free to let us know!

Hello SWE!

We hope you all had a great holiday break and are looking forward to another semester of SWE! This semester, we are planning on doing outreach activities at Dwight Rich School (Woodcreek Elementary has moved to this building). We will go to a classroom of elementary kids and do hands-on projects with the students to get them interested in engineering. We are waiting to set the date of the first event until we hear back from the school, so keep an eye out for an email from us with a date!

Welcome back this semester ladies!

We have a lot going on this semester so be sure to get involved with SWE! A big event we have coming up is Impressions 5, which will take place in February to kick off E-Week, and be sure to check out the social, community service, and outreach schedules for other events. If you aren't a national member be sure to register today to get prizes this semester! Last semester's prizes will be ready for next meeting. Lastly, members who are interested in being on a sub-committee should stay at the end of the meeting to briefly talk about who will be doing what! Thanks and have a great semester!
