

WIE ARE SPARTAN ENGINEERS!

Design Your Future with Women in Engineering

Connect to Your Future as a Spartan Woman in Engineering

	WIE: Women in Engineering	WIC: Women in Computing	SWE: Society of Women Engineers	Phi Sigma Rho
Who We Are:	Program that assists students in successfully completing their engineering degree	Organization of students and faculty that help to retain females in the computing field	A Global Professional organization that supports diversity and success in STEM fields	A national sorority for women in engineering and engineering technology majors
Who Can Join:	All students studying engineering are already members of WIE	Any students interested in technology	Any students pursuing a degree in the STEM field	Any female students in an engineering or engineering technologies major
How to Join:	You are already a part of the program, no regular meetings	Attend regularly scheduled meetings	Bi-weekly meetings with a National paid Membership	Attend rush in the fall
To Learn More:	egr.msu.edu/wie	msuwic.cse.msu.edu	egr.msu.edu/swe	msu.phisigmarho.org