§ 1 Rights Granted

The copyright to this Contribution is transferred to Springer-Verlag GmbH Berlin Heidelberg (hereinafter called Springer-Verlag). The copyright transfer covers the sole right to store, reproduce, publish, disseminate, and sell throughout the world the said Contribution and parts thereof, as well as its translations in any foreign languages, in all forms and media of expression – such as in its electronic form (offline, online) – now known or developed in the future.

Springer-Verlag will take, either in its own name or in that of the Author, any necessary steps to protect these rights against infringement by third parties. It will have the copyright notice inserted according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection, either in its own name or in that of the Author.

If the Author is an employee of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of his/her employment, the Contribution is not subject to U.S. copyright protection. The Author transfers the publishing rights to Springer-Verlag to the extent transferable.

The Author may self-archive an author-created version of his/her Contribution on his/her own website and/or in his/her institutional repository, including his/her final version. He/she may also deposit this version on his/her funder's or funder's designated repository at the funder's request or as a result of a legal obligation, provided it is not made publicly available until 12 months after official publication. He/she may not use the publisher's PDF version, which is posted on www.springerlink.com, for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit. Furthermore, the author may only post his/her version provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication and a link is inserted to the published article on Springer's website. The link should be accompanied by the following text: "The original publication is available at www.springerlink.com".

The Author retains the right to use his/her Contribution for his/her further scientific career by including the final published paper in his/her dissertation or doctoral thesis provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication. The Author also retains the right to use, without having to pay a fee, parts of the Contribution (e.g., illustrations) for inclusion in future work, and to publish a substantially revised version (at least 30% new content) elsewhere, provided that the original Springer Contribution is properly cited.

The Author warrants that his/her Contribution is original except for such excerpts from copyrighted works (including illustrations, tables, and text quotations) as may be included with the permission of the copyright holder thereof, in which case(s) the Author is required to obtain written permission and to indicate the precise source. Springer-Verlag has the right to permit others to use individual illustrations within the usual limits. The Author warrants that the Contribution has not heretofore been published in whole or in part, that it contains no libelous statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory rights or proprietary rights of others, and that he/she will indemnify Springer-Verlag against any cost, expenses or damages for which Springer-Verlag may become liable as a result of any breach of this warranty.

§ 2 Delivery of the Work and Publication

The Author agrees to deliver to the responsible Volume Editor(s) (for conferences, usually one of the Program Chairs), on a date to be agreed upon, the manuscript created according to the Springer instructions for authors. Springer-Verlag agrees to publish the said Contribution at its own cost and expense. After submission of the Consent to Publish form signed by the Corresponding Author, changes of authorship, or in the order of the authors listed, will not be accepted by Springer-Verlag.

§ 3 Author's Discount

The Author is entitled to purchase for personal use (directly from Springer-Verlag) books published by Springer-Verlag at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list price. Resale of such books is not permitted.
